

Can not believe that anyone can attempt to abrogate the telephone privacy situation that prohibits indiscriminate invasions of ones personal time that existed before the Carter action.

Be advised, if this action is negated will be most displeased and will take further action.

Respectfully,

Jack R. Samuels
South Bend, Indiana